If it isn't right tell us. We'll make it right.

A "Women's Exchange" is being established here in the Fisk & Loosley store under the supervision of the Social Service Department of the Women's Club of Moline.

A suitable space has been set aside for their use, and Mrs. John Huey will be here each afternoon from I o'clock to 5 o'clock to meet women who wish to leave articles for sale, or to buy them. Any woman may leave anything she wishes to sell (subject to the approval of Mrs. Huey and the Woman's Club managing Committee). When sold, the entire amount received (less ten percent commission, which will be used to defray the expense of running the exchange). will be paid by Mrs. Huey to the one leaving the articles for sale. Fancy work, old lace, old china books, pictures, home baked bread, etc., will no doubt form a considerable part of the articles left for sale.

This Woman's Exchange will open tomorrow, Saturday, at 1 p. m.
